

Community Support Nights A Year- End Reflection

When I think of leaving here, I feel.....

Before leaving, I really want to.....

When I think back on my entire JV experience, some of the most vivid images that stand out for me are....some of the most vivid sounds are....some of the most vivid tastes are...some of the most vivid smells are.....

A memorable moment for me at my worksite was when.....

A memorable moment for me involving my JV community was when.....

I anticipate that the things I'll miss most about my host country are.....

The things I won't miss are....

I anticipate the most difficult thing about ending my time as a JV will be.....

The easiest thing about ending my time as a JV will be.....

These are some of the people (and personal characteristics, significant moments or memories associated with them) who have been significant during my time as a JV....
