

Your ALINE Card Will Be Wisely Pay by ADP™ on 3/11/19

Hello,

We're excited to tell you about an ALINE Card by ADP® change. We've been busy creating a new experience for you, designed to bring you more, day one and beyond.

On 03/11/19 (Monday), between 1 a.m. and 7 a.m. EST, we'll move you to the new Wisely Pay program, which means you won't be able to use the ALINE Card you have during this time. Plan ahead and withdraw enough funds to cover you during this time. Please read the following:

What's New

- Access to new digital wallets, like Apple Pay®, Google Pay® & Samsung Pay®*.
- Entirely redesigned, easier web experience at MyADP.com.

What's the Same

- Card – No need for a new card... your current card will work just fine.
- Card number – Same card same number.
- Fees – Fees are pretty much the same; however, you may notice some changes to their names

- New family card that lets you give family members their own card with their own funds. You allocate the funds—no more pooled money.

and how they're applied. See the Notice of Changes for details.

- Direct deposit – You'll receive your pay the same way you do today. No need to contact your employer.
- Bill pay – Your current setup will remain the same.

What you need to know	Action you need to take
Bill payments – If you have payments scheduled during the downtime period, it may not process.	Reschedule any bill payments you have planned during the downtime period noted above.
Secondary cards – If you have secondary cards (also now known as family cards), users will no longer have access to primary card funds.	Add funds to existing secondary/family cards. Go to MyADP.com right after your move date/time above and easily move money over to your family cards, which will now retain their own separate balance.
Website Change – Mycard.adp.com will now be MyADP.com. You can still go to the old site, just follow the prompts when you get there.	Website Change – Mycard.adp.com will now be MyADP.com.
